

Dear NYC Elite Families,

First off we would like to thank you for your communication and support during these unprecedented times. We are closely monitoring the situation and making decisions based on information that is available to us each day. We would like to provide some updates for NYC Elite:

Effective Monday, March 16th we will not be running any classes earlier than 1:30pm. Morning classes will resume on March 30. Saturday classes will run tomorrow, March 14, and will resume on April 4.

At this time we will be running all scheduled classes 1:30 pm and later during the week as well as all USAG and USAIGC team workouts. We will also be holding our Spring Break Camp groups for the half and full day programs next week. Private lessons are also available and running at this time.

NYC Elite will not be using any ball or foam pits until further notice.

As a community we appreciate your understanding during these times. We have extended an unlimited make up policy for the Spring Semester. We are hopeful our daily routines will go back to normalcy sooner rather than later and we will continue to update you with any changes.
